Recommendations: Please select one of the following recommendations:

1. Accept: no required edits; submission may be published as originally submitted; less feedback is expected for an “accept” decision
2. Minor revision: mild revision suggested; “accept” decision will follow satisfactory response to comments of the reviewers.
3. Major revisions: significant revisions required; resubmissions will be sent back to the reviewers to ascertain desired improvements. “accept” decision will follow only after reviewers’ affirmation of corrections. If you choose this option, are you available to review the revised paper? Yes/No
4. Reject: submission declined; no opportunity to resubmit in current form

Reviewers are expected to state any relevant competing interests they may have during submission of their reviews and can object to a request to review if such competing interest can influence the review process.
